Protect Preserve Defend

Charting America's Course as Free and Independent People.

It is the nature of the State to seek dominance over the population. Freedom will not ultimately remain intact if we leave it unattended. America needs forward thinking leaders leaders who do not apologize to the politically-correct demands of the thought police. Self-hatred and appeasement only foster more disrespect. We must find a way to chart our own course in the world as free and independent people.

Darrell Castle

We are currently working to determine if we can do write-ins on the Ohio ballot.

Help collect signatures to place Constitution Party Candidates on the Ohio 2016 Ballot

Gale Joy - Secretary
Constitution Party of Ohio

secretary@cpofohio.org

All,

Thank you for your interest and willingness to assist us in getting Darrell and Scott on the ballot in Ohio.

We received the signed Statement of Candidacy from the campaign today. I will be making a pdf of the form and the circulating petition and getting it posted to the Constitution Party of Ohio website and Facebook page. I can also mail you a copy/copies if you choose. Just let me know and I will get them in the mail.

As I'm sure many of you are aware, the State of Ohio passed legislation removing all minor parties (except the Green Party for now) from the ballot. As such, we are forced to have Darrell and Scott register as Independents and go through the lengthy and arduous process of gathering enough signatures to get them registered as Independents. The current law states that we will need to submit 5000 valid registered voter signatures to get them on the ballot. This means that it will be necessary to submit 7500-8000 signatures for certification by August 10th.

Darrell and his wife Joan will be in Ohio next week. We are still working on the arrangements; however, the dates are 6/16 - 6/18. We are anticipating them being in Southwest Ohio on the 16th, possibly Dayton or Cincinnati or a midpoint between. We are then thinking about Central Ohio (Columbus or surrounding area) on the 17th and Akron/Cleveland or surrounding on the 18th. We really need to get the word out on these events and pack the house. We are going to need volunteers that are willing to sponsor them and/or the meetings to make it a successful trip. IF you have a location you can recommend that we meet in these areas, please send your suggestions to me.

The campaign is committing to Ohio and we need to be committed to the campaign. Ohio is sure to be a true battleground State in this election cycle. As they say, "As goes Ohio, goes the rest of the Nation". Let's truly make Ohio the Heart of it All this year.

We can do this with your help. We will be having a campaign kick-off conference call later this week and then every week until we get it done. Please help us get the word out about the campaign. We are looking for key volunteers to assist in the campaign. Those positions are posted on the CP of Ohio Facebook page. I will also be mailing it to this list. If you have interest in any of the positions let me know. Also, the Constitution Party of Ohio is always looking for volunteers and leaders also.

The Castle / Bradley 2016 Campaign is looking for the following positions to be filled in Ohio. If you have an interest contact the Ohio Chairman.

Castle/Bradley 2016 Campaign

State Liaison Communications Coordinator: This person will pursue media coverage throughout the State. They must be willing to make cold calls to TV, radio, and publications within the State and market the candidates. This person must be comfortable speaking to strangers.

State Endorsement Seeker: This person will pursue media coverage and endorsements throughout the State. Duties will be similar to the Communication Coordinator.

State Social Media Coordinator: This person will work in close alliance with the campaign coordinator of Social Media. They will schedule topics, approaches, do's and don'ts and may need to find others to help as needed.

State Events Coordinator: This person will work with the campaign scheduler and work out details for ensuring that when one of the candidates are in town, he is comfortable and out speaking. The crux of the position is to make the visit effective in meeting the needs of the party and the campaign. This person will be responsible for bringing to the scheduler, the financial plan for the candidate(s) travel expenses and transportation while visiting. They will also help prepare the path of events that will allow them to meet/speak to as many people as possible inside and outside the party. They will put together a plan for including local candidates so Darrell can endorse them and include them.

State Special Issues Coordinator: This person will prepare a report of the issues of specific interest to the state. An example would be that in NV, 90% of the land is owned by the Federal Government. In WY it might be environmental issues and the EPA regulations. In TN it might be Smart Meters. This allows the candidate who will be speaking to know local issues in enough depth to discuss them.

If you have an interest in one of these positions contact the CP of Ohio Chairman Don Shrader.

chairman@cpofohio.org (330) 400-3444

If you have questions, comments, ideas, or just wish to share your experiences feel free to reach out to me or the State Chairman, Don Shrader.

Again, thank you for your interest and willingness to help us restore our lost liberties and bring our country back to the original intent of the founders and framers.

3rd party candidates for 2016

According to a May Wall Street Journal/NBC News poll, almost half of registered voters would consider a generic third-party presidential nominee. A Gallup poll from September 2015 found that 60 percent of Americans want there to be a third-party, tied for the highest level since Gallup started asking the question in 2004.

So who are your third party presidential options in 2016? Here they are, organized by the number of votes they got in the 2012 election.

Libertarian Party
Gary Johnson

Party's 2012 vote total:
1,275,971

Johnson, formerly a Republican, was governor of New Mexico from 1995 to 2003. In 1995, Johnson set a state and national record by vetoing 200 bills, 48 percent of the bills passed by the legislature that year. Johnson had no political experience before becoming governor. He owned one of the largest construction companies in New Mexico. In his personal life, Johnson spends a lot of time on personal fitness.

Citizen's Courier

He's run several Ironman Triathlons and climbed Mount Everest. Johnson was also the Libertarian Party nominee in 2012, earning just less than 1 percent of the popular vote.

Policy Positions:

- Wants to eliminate individual income, corporate income and payroll taxes, to be replaced with a simple consumption tax.
- On immigration, wants to have a system of work visas in which potential immigrants have to go through a background check, pay taxes and provide proof of employment.
- Supports a ban on late-term abortions and taxpayer funding of abortion, but believes women have a legal right to abortion and shouldn't be subject to persecution.

Age on Election Day: 63

Education: University of New Mexico

Family: Married to Dee Simms from 1977 until they divorced in 2005 (one son, one daughter). Now engaged to Kate Prusack.

Birthplace: Minot, N.D.

Current Residence: Taos, N.M.

Religion: Lutheran

Vice Presidential Nominee: Bill Weld, former Republican governor of Massachusetts.

Green Party To Be Determined

Party's 2012 vote total: 469,627

The Green Party's national convention is August 4-7, when the party will select an official nominee. That said, the heavy favorite is the party's 2012 nominee, Jill Stein. Stein was a member of the Lexington, Mass., local government from 2005 to 2011. Stein is a doctor, which she says inspired her environmental activism. She became disillusioned with the Democratic Party in 2003, when Democrats in the Massachusetts legislature repealed a campaign finance law that provided taxpayer funds for campaigns that agreed to only accept donations under $100 per person. Stein was a principal organizer of the Global Climate Convergence for People, Planet and Peace over Profit, a major September 2014 environmental protest. Stein was the Green Party's presidential candidate in 2012, where she came in fourth.

Policy Positions:

- Believes jobs, healthcare, unions, food, water, housing, utilities and voting are human rights.
- Wants to end fracking, offshore drilling, oil trains, mountaintop removal and uranium mines. Wants to spend federal money on public transit, sustainable agriculture, conservation and renewable energy to put the country on a path to having all energy come from renewable sources by 2030.

- Wants a moratorium on GMOs and pesticides until they are proven to be safe.

Age on Election Day: 66

Education: Harvard University (undergraduate and medical degrees)

Family: Married to Richard Rohrer, with two sons (Noah, Ben)

Birthplace: Chicago

Current Residence: Lexington, Mass.

Religion: [Unknown]

Vice Presidential Nominee: To be determined.

Constitution Party Darrell Castle

Party's 2012 vote total: 122,389

Castle served as a Marine during the Vietnam War. He has been a lawyer for more than 25 years, working on consumer bankruptcy, personal injury and social security/disability and workers' compensation. Darrell Castle and Associates is based in Memphis, Tenn., with four other firms across the Midwest. Castle and his wife founded Mia's Children Foundation in 1998, a Christian mission project in Romania focused on homeless gypsy children. Castle spent two terms as chair of the Constitution Party of Tennessee and was the party's vice presidential candidate in 2008. That year, the Constitution Party earned 200,000 votes and came in fifth.

Policy Positions:

- Claims to be 100 percent pro-life, and promises to veto any bill that would give federal funding to Planned Parenthood or other abortion providers.
- Would repeal the Federal Reserve Act, allowing lenders and borrowers to set their own interest rates. Castle says this would end bailouts: "I would remind the banks that there would no longer be a Federal Reserve to lend to them in an emergency so if a bank gets in trouble, it's on its own."
- Wants the United States to end its membership in the United Nations. "The very existence of the U.N. is an affront to liberty and human dignity," Castle says.

Age on Election Day: 67 or 68

Education: East Tennessee State University (Political Science and History), Memphis State University (Juris Doctorate)

Family: Married to Joan Castle (one daughter)

Birthplace: Kingsport, Tenn.

Current Residence: Germantown, Tenn.

Religion: Christian

Vice Presidential Nominee: Scott Bradley, an independent business owner from Utah.

Independent American Party

Farley Anderson

Party's 2012 votes total: 122,389 (Virgil Goode ran as both the Constitution Party nominee and the Independent American Party nominee)

Anderson ran as an independent for governor of Utah in 2010, coming third with 2 percent of the vote. He was formerly a Republican, serving as a precinct chair in 1991. Anderson owned a publishing company for five years until 2010.

Vice Presidential Nominee: [unknown]

Policy Positions:

- Wants to repeal the Federal Reserve Act, limit taxation to the methods allowed for in the original Constitution and eliminate the national debt with a balanced budget.
- Wants a "strong defense establishment" and says American military shouldn't be committed to international organizations (such as NATO or the U.N.).

- Believes in Judeo-Christian heritage, and that "it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and to humbly implore His protection and favor."

Age on Election Day: 60

Education: Weber State University (Oral Communications)

Family: Married (Helen), 11 children (Tamsyn, James, Adam, Dawna, Levi, Heather, Joshua, Sarah, Sam, Ben, Emily)

Birthplace: Ogden, Utah

Current Residence: Paradise, Utah

Religion: Latter-day Saints

Party for Socialism and Liberation

Gloria La Riva

Party's 2012 vote total: 9,399

La Riva is the executive vice president of the Pacific Media Workers Guild, Communications

Workers of America, Local 39521. She ran for governor of California twice, mayor of San Francisco once and president once, all unsuccessfully. She has also produced videos like "Heroes Not Looters" in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. La Riva calls the U.S. embargo against Cuba a "blockade" and won Cuba's Friendship Medal for her support of Cuba.

Policy Positions:

- Wants a "decent-paying job" to be a legal right, with a $20 an hour minimum wage and a "living income" guaranteed for those who can't work.
- Would shut down all U.S. military bases around the world, bringing all "troops, planes and ships home" and using the military budget for other needs.
- Believes in "free, safe, legal abortion on demand."

Age on Election Day: 62

Education: Brandeis University

Family: [Unknown]

Birthplace: Albuquerque, N.M.

Current Residence: San Francisco

Religion: [Unknown]

Vice Presidential Nominee: Eugene

Puryear, an activist from Washington D.C.

Socialist Workers Party

Alyson Kennedy

Party's 2012 vote total: 4,117

Kennedy works at Walmart in Chicago. She has been a socialist since the 1970s and has fought for union rights for decades. Kennedy, formerly a coal miner herself, has been particularly active fighting for union rights for coal miners. She also ran as the party's vice presidential nominee in 2008 and for the U.S. Senate in Illinois in 2010.

Policy Positions:

- Wants a minimum wage of $15 an hour, guaranteed full-time work and union rights.
- Opposes U.S. wars, like the former war in Vietnam and the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.
- Wants a "government-funded public works program to create jobs and build schools, medical, child care and recreation centers, replace crumbling infrastructure and other things working people need."

Age on Election Day: 65 or 66

Education: [Unknown]

Family: [Unknown]

Birthplace: Indianapolis

Current Residence: Chicago
